

Update Information

For many reasons it is extremely important that the school maintain current parent contact information for all of our students. If your child had some type of medical emergency it would be imperative that we be able to contact you immediately.

Please alert the office, in person, by phone, or by email any time there is a change in:

- phone numbers
- people on the emergency contact list
- physical addresses
- email addresses