

Homework Guidelines

Students at Forks Elementary School are required to do thirty minutes of reading per day at home. If students are not capable of reading themselves yet, then we ask that somebody in the home take the responsibility to read to them.

Teachers may also send home packets of supplemental work that are highly recommended for students to work on, but they are not required.